OfficerID: MPD1125, Narrative

On July 9, 2026 at 1501 hours Charles Kinslow reported an unauthorized purchase through an online application using his identity. I, Cpl. Timothy Yruegas responded to Kinslows residence for contact located at 1002 Forsythe Avenue, apartment 4B.

Arriving on scene I met with Kinslow who explained he had established an account with Affirm which is an online financial application providing installment plans to buyers for merchandise or products. Kinslow stated he was notified on this date a purchase of $104.63 was completed from the store labeled La Vie Est Belle by Lancome on July 7, 2026. The order delivery address was displayed as 81 Keever Ct San Jose, California 95127 along with the order number assigned as PE270138. Kinslow denied making or permitting this purchase and furthermore is not familiar with the delivery address posted upon the purchase receipt.

Kinslow stated he began the procedure of disputing the purchase with Affirm however to complete the process he was requested to report this matter to Law Enforcement. Kinslow denied any other known subjects to have his information related to the Affirm account or identification to open any accounts to his knowledge. Kinslow provided all information related to this unauthorized purchase including an installment plan for the merchandise which set forth three remaining payments of $26.16. All information collected from Kinslow was submitted to evidence for any further review.

Considering Kinslow had no information to provide to make known any possibility of a subject obtaining his information or identity within the state of California this matter would be pending investigation by Affirm. Any further information regarding this matter would be included in supplemental reporting.
